THOMAS WHIPS TWO MEN, BUT LOSES DECISION HE REALLY WINS

(Special to The Evening World.) SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 1.—Al Nell surprised the spectators at Dreamland Pavilion last night when he not only beat ten rounds with Joe Thomas, the crack heavyweight, but kept that clever young fighter as busy as a nail for the entire time. Nell seemed to have all his old-time cleverness as a fighter, but he could do but little damage to his vigorous young opponent. The latter had just knocked out Frank McConnell, after one minute and twenty-five seconds of fighting.

As the other preliminaries had lasted less than a round, it was evident Thomas was not forcing matters, apparently intending to give the spectators a little run for their money. When he finally started in earnest, however, the man in front of him, who was hard to stop, Thomas punched Nell severely in every round, but still could not put him down.

As the fight progressed, the spectators commenced to cheer for Nell and coached him to stay the ten rounds.

Nell did not mind a running fight, but stood right up to his work and was willing to swap punches with his husky young opponent.

PUGILISTIC POINTERS.

Root Offers to Fight Moir In England

As there does not seem to be a chance of George Moir, the English heavyweight champion, coming to this country and fighting Philadelphia Jack O'Brien, Jack Root, the Chicago pugilist, has called a challenge to Maurice Bettinson, of the National Sporting Club, London, offering to fight Moir for the title of world's champion.

Those on whom fortune has not smiled will travel back to the big city and hustle through the snows of the winter with an occasional hot wire from New Orleans or California to keep the blood from stagnating.

Racing is a curious game. It is a game of life in hope and die in despair, so long as the bugle blows and the crowd comes to the post the regular always has a chance of striking it rich.

Dame Fortune only lets him in for a few years, but this season she is hard to find. It seems to have been hard season for the regular, a hard one for the hooker and a hard one for every one except the racing association, which relentlessly demands its percentage at the gate.

Nevertheless the regulars will get cooled out during the winter, and when the saddle bell rings again with spring you will find the same old tiger faces turned toward the beckoning will o' the wisp which promises so much and yields so little. This meeting at Bennington has been exceptionally lean. The favorites have averaged early fifty per cent. of wins.

The regulars do not live who can afford to live, and getting away from the post well. He is the only rider par excellence. The stewards favor him no more than any other rider. They have a wish to discourage honest riding, or strictly honest work in the saddle, a rare quality that should be encouraged. Miller goes to California to ride for the winter. There is no reason to believe that he will not be the premier jockey next season, for he is older, stronger and more experienced.

Russell Going to California to Fight.

"Uncle" Russell, the rugged lightweight of Philadelphia, is another Eastern fighter who intends to make a trip to San Francisco in search of fights. Billy Roche, the fight manager of the "Uncle" in New York, McCarney, manager of Russell, because of his visit to the Hotel Webster last summer, California, lightweight, the promising boxer, was married in 1888, and have two children, who will live with their mother. They have been promised a wedding present.

RACING ENDS IN EAST WITH LAST DAY AT BENNINGTON

"Getaway" Closes the Cleanest Meeting of Season of 1906.

BY FRANK W. THORP.

(Special to The Evening World.) WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 1.—Tacting ends at Bennington to-day. It is the last day in the season of 1906. After the eighth race the thousands who make a rutting of the track will split up the family party until the uglier calls them together at Bennington next spring. The more affluent will journey to the land of fruits and flowers at Los Angeles or to the home of the crawfish and pawpaw at New Orleans. Those on whom fortune has not smiled will travel back to the big city and hustle through the snows of the winter with an occasional hot wire from New Orleans or California to keep the blood from stagnating.
